OUR FOUNDER

Late Shri G.C. Bansal
Patron

It gives me immense pleasure to know that an Educational Institute that started 30 years back with the aim to nourish and educate from tiny kind of to young teenagers of 12th class, has now entered into level of higher education by starting B.Ed. College.

An institution which started with 20 students is now catering a large number of students. It shows the dedication of the teachers and other staff members towards the Institute which helped the institution to flourish. I am confident that the same dedication will persist and the newly opened college will also develop and flourish in the same way. I wish the success of the institute and extend my blessings to all the components of the institute.
